

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

MARTHA AMMONS,

Plaintiff,

CASE NO.:

-VS-

ALLY FINANCIAL INC,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

1. Plaintiff alleges violation of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. §227 et seq. (“TCPA”).

INTRODUCTION

2. The TCPA was enacted to prevent companies like ALLY FINANCIAL INC from invading American citizens’ privacy and prevent abusive “robo-calls.”

3. “The TCPA is designed to protect individual consumers from receiving intrusive and unwanted telephone calls.” Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, –US–, 132 S.Ct. 740, 745, 181 L.Ed.2d 881 (2012).

4. “Senator Hollings, the TCPA’s sponsor, described these calls as ‘the *1256 scourge of modern civilization, they wake us up in the morning; they interrupt our dinner at night; they force the sick and elderly out of bed; they hound us until we want to rip the telephone out of the wall.’ 137 Cong. Rec. 30, 821 (1991) Senator Hollings presumably intended to give telephone subscribers another option: telling the autodialers to simply stop calling.” Osario v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F. 3d 1242 (11th Cir. 2014).

5. “No one can deny the legitimacy of the state’s goal: Preventing the phone (at home or in one’s pocket) from frequently ringing with unwanted calls. Every call uses some of the phone owner’s time and mental energy, both of which are precious. Most members of the public want to limit calls, especially cellphone calls, to family and acquaintances, and to get their political information (not to mention their advertisements) [*6] in other ways.” Patriotic Veterans v. Zoeller, No. 16-2059, 2017 U.S. App. LEXIS 47, at *5-6 (7th Cir. Jan 3, 2017).

6. According to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), “Unwanted calls and texts are the number one complaint to the FCC. There are thousands of complaints to the FCC every month on both telemarketing and robocalls. The FCC received more than 215,000 TCPA complaints in 2014.” <https://www.fcc.gov/document/fact-sheet-consumer-protection-proposal>.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

7. Jurisdiction and venue for purposes of this action are appropriate and conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331, Federal Question Jurisdiction, as this action involves violations of the TCPA.

8. Subject matter jurisdiction, federal question jurisdiction, for purposes of this action is appropriate and conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1331, which provides that the district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States; and this action involves violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii). See Mims v. Arrow Fin. Servs., LLC, S.Ct. 740, 748 (2012) and Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F.3d 1242, 1249 (11th Cir. 2014).

9. The alleged violations described herein occurred in Davidson County, Tennessee. Accordingly, venue is appropriate with this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b)(2), as it is the judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action occurred.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. Plaintiff is a natural person, and citizen of the State of Tennessee, residing in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee.

11. Plaintiff is the “called party.” See Breslow v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 755 F. 3d 1265 (11th Cir. 2014) and Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 746 F.3d 1242 (11th Cir. 2014).

12. Defendant is a corporation which was formed in Delaware with its principal place of business located at 500 Woodward Ave FL 10, Detroit, MI 48226, doing business in the State of Tennessee through its registered agent, CT Corporation System, located at 800 S Gay St., Ste 2021, Knoxville, TN, 37929.

13. Plaintiff is the regular user and carrier of the cellular telephone number at issue, (615)  - 6261, and was the called party and recipient of Defendant’s hereinafter described calls.

14. In or about early July of 2015, Plaintiff began receiving calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone from Defendant seeking to recover an alleged debt.

15. Upon receipt of the calls from Defendant, Plaintiff’s caller ID identified the calls were being initiated from, but not limited to, the following phone numbers: (888) 650-4831, (855) 306-6998, (866) 205-3665, (888) 650-4831, (888) 235-9513, (866) 443-3112, (855) 856-2559, (866) 443-3114, (866) 891-8876, (888) 282-3139, (877) 281-1209, (888) 925-2559, (855) 237-2357, (855) 234-3753, (888) 925-2559, (866) 950-7475, and when those numbers are called, an agent/representative answers the phone and identifies themselves as an employee of Ally Financial.

16. Upon information and belief, some or all of the calls the Defendant made to Plaintiff's cellular telephone number were made using an "automatic telephone dialing system" which has the capacity to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, without human intervention, using a random or sequential number generator (including but not limited to a predictive dialer) or an artificial or prerecorded voice; and to dial such numbers as specified by 47 U.S.C § 227(a)(1) (hereinafter "autodialer calls"). Plaintiff will testify that she knew it was an autodialer because of the vast number of calls she received and because when she answered a call from the Defendant she would hear an automated message telling her the call was from Ally Financial, and to please hold the line for the next available representative.

17. Furthermore, some or all of the calls at issue were placed by the Defendant using a "prerecorded voice," as specified by the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

18. None of Defendant's telephone calls placed to Plaintiff were for "emergency purposes" as specified in 47 U.S.C. §227(b)(1)(A)..

19. Defendant attempted to collect a debt from the Plaintiff by this campaign of telephone calls.

20. In or about December of 2015, Plaintiff received a call from the Defendant, met with an extended pause, eventually was connected to a live representative, and informed that agent/representative of Defendant that she was the cosigner of said vehicle, provided her daughter's telephone number, and demanded that the Defendant cease placing calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number.

21. During the aforementioned phone conversation in or about December of 2015 with Defendant's agent/representative, Plaintiff unequivocally revoked any express consent Defendant may have had for placement of telephone calls to Plaintiff's aforementioned cellular telephone number by the use of an automatic telephone dialing system or a pre-recorded or artificial voice.

22. Each subsequent call the Defendant made to the Plaintiff's aforementioned cellular telephone number was done so without the "express consent" of the Plaintiff.

23. Each subsequent call the Defendant made to the Plaintiff's aforementioned cellular telephone number was knowing and willful.

24. Additionally, on or about October 24, 2016, Plaintiff received a call from the Defendant, met with an extended pause, eventually was connected to a live representative named "Mr. Boat", and informed "Mr. Boat" that she previously requested that Defendant stop calling her cell phone, and again demanded that the Defendant cease placing calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number.

25. Additionally, on or about December 1, 2016, due to continued automated calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number from the Defendant, Plaintiff again received a call from Defendant, met with an extended pause, was eventually connected to a live agent/representative of Defendant named either "Jeanine" or "Belinda" and informed the agent/representative of Defendant that she had previously informed them not to call her cellular phone, and again demanded that Defendant cease placing calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number.

26. Additionally, on or about January 15, 2017, due to continued automated calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number from the Defendant, Plaintiff again received a call from Defendant, met with an extended pause, was eventually connected to a live agent/representative of Defendant, and informed the agent/representative of Defendant that she had previously informed them not to call her cellular phone, that she was on her way to church,

Defendant needs to contact the person who has the vehicle, and again demanded that Defendant cease placing calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number.

27. Despite actual knowledge of their wrongdoing, the Defendant continued the campaign of abuse, calling the Plaintiff despite the Plaintiff revoking any express consent the Defendant may have had to call her aforementioned cellular telephone number.

28. On at least nine (9) separate occasions, Plaintiff has either answered a call from Defendant or returned a call to Defendant regarding her account, held the line to be connected to a live representative, and demanded that Defendant cease placing calls to her aforementioned cellular telephone number. Her principal reason for answering these calls and making these demands of Ally Financial, Inc. was the cumulative injury and annoyance she suffered from the calls placed by Ally Financial Inc. These injuries are further described in paragraphs 31 through 39 herein.

29. Each of the Plaintiff's requests for the harassment to end was ignored.

30. From about December of 2015 through the filing of this Complaint, Defendant has placed approximately five-hundred (500) actionable calls to Plaintiff's aforementioned cellular telephone number. (Please see attached Exhibit "A" representing a non-exclusive call log of sixty (60) calls from October 6, 2016 through October 31, 2016).

31. Defendant intentionally harassed and abused Plaintiff on numerous occasions by calling multiple times during one day, and on back to back days, with such frequency as can reasonably be expected to harass.

32. From each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of invasion of privacy and the intrusion upon her right of seclusion.

33. From each and every call without express consent placed by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of the occupation of her cellular telephone line and cellular phone by unwelcome calls, making the phone unavailable for legitimate callers or outgoing calls while the phone was ringing from Defendant's calls.

34. From each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone, Plaintiff suffered the injury of unnecessary expenditure of her time. Plaintiff had to waste time to deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflect the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular phone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

35. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone was an injury in the form of a nuisance and annoyance to the Plaintiff. For calls that were answered, Plaintiff had to go through the unnecessary trouble of answering them. Even for unanswered calls, Plaintiff had to deal with missed call notifications and call logs that reflected the unwanted calls. This also impaired the usefulness of these features of Plaintiff's cellular phone, which are designed to inform the user of important missed communications.

36. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone resulted in the injury of unnecessary expenditure of Plaintiff's cell phone's battery power.

37. Each and every call placed without express consent by Defendant to Plaintiff's cell phone resulted in the injury of a trespass to Plaintiff's chattel, namely her cellular phone and her cellular phone services.

38. As a result of the calls described above, Plaintiff suffered an invasion of privacy. Plaintiff was also affected in a personal and individualized way by stress, anxiety, nervousness, emotional distress, and aggravation.

39. Further, Plaintiff suffers from high blood pressure, and her condition has been exasperated due to the stress caused by Ally Financial, Inc. ceaseless barrage of telephone calls to her cellular telephone number.

40. Defendant's corporate policy is structured so as to continue to call individuals like the Plaintiff, despite these individuals explaining to Defendant they do not wish to be called.

41. Defendant's corporate policy provided no means for Plaintiff to have Plaintiff's number removed from Defendant's call list.

42. Defendant has numerous other federal lawsuits pending against them alleging similar violations as stated in this Complaint.

43. Defendant has numerous complaints against it across the country asserting that its automatic telephone dialing system continues to call despite being requested to stop.

44. Defendant has had numerous complaints against it from consumers across the country asking to not be called; however, Defendant continues to call these individuals.

45. Defendant violated the TCPA with respect to the Plaintiff.

46. Defendant willfully and/or knowingly violated the TCPA with respect to the Plaintiff.

COUNT I
(Violation of the TCPA)

47. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates paragraphs one (1) through forty-six (46) above as if fully set forth herein.

48. Defendant willfully violated the TCPA with respect to Plaintiff, specifically for each of the auto-dialer calls made to Plaintiff's cellular telephone after Plaintiff notified Defendant that Plaintiff did not wish to receive any telephone communication from Defendant, and demanded for the calls to stop.

49. Defendant repeatedly placed non-emergency telephone calls to Plaintiff's cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system or prerecorded or artificial voice without Plaintiff's prior express consent in violation of federal law, including 47 U.S.C § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury on all issues so triable and judgment against Defendant for statutory damages, treble damages, punitive damages, actual damages and any other such relief the court may deem just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,
